Day before yesterday there was a mad dog scare at East Hill. A dog went around chewing up all the other dogs in the neighborhood. A shot was taken at the brute, but it made its escape. Residents in the neighborhood are today shooting the dogs that were bitten by the alleged mad dog. Mad dog scares are usually about the most senseless things possible.

Passaic, N. J., March 18.—The refusal of many of the public school teachers here to contribute to the retiring fund for teachers recently established by the board of education, is making trouble for the board. Under the provisions of the fund, teachers who have served for twenty years are entitled to retirement on a pension. To maintain this fund, deductions of about 2 per cent are made from all of the teachers' salaries.

This enforced contribution to the retiring fund is objected to by young
